INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY BREAKFAST

2012 'Connecting Girls, Inspiring Futures'

mā te tautoko, ka whai kaha, ka ora

Thursday 8 March 2012

7.45am - 10.00am

Individual tickets - $99 + GST per person

International Women's Day is the global day celebrating the economic, political and social achievements of women. Be among the first women in the world to celebrate this auspicious occasion and the launch of International Endometriosis Awareness Month with a special breakfast at the Ellerslie International Flower Show.

Deborah Bush QSM, CEO of Endometriosis New Zealand, author and international speaker will entertain us as guest speaker. In 2011 Deborah was recipient of the 'International Outstanding Service Award' commemorating the 100th Year Celebration of International Women's Day and the Zonta International District 16 'Woman of the Biennium' Award.

Package includes:

- Access to the Corporate Village from 7.45am to 10.00am
- VIP Express Ticket to the show valued at $65 - valid for the full day and giving you express access into feature exhibits, so you avoid any queues
- VIP car park close to the show entrance
- Bubbles served on arrival
- Breakfast with a choice of hot and cold options
- Guest speaker
- Opportunity to win fabulous prizes
- Official show programme
- Goodie bag valued at over $50

March is International Endometriosis Awareness Month. Support over 11,500 women and girls who have endometriosis in Canterbury by booking your ticket and securing your place now. All proceeds will be donated to Endometriosis New Zealand, a Christchurch based national charity which represents the tens of thousands of girls and women with endometriosis in New Zealand and works with those who treat the condition. www.nzendo.co.nz
